

Atos gives employees greater flexibility with the highly secure, mobile work environment of Microsoft 365

Atos delivers digital workplace solutions to customers all across the globe. When the time came for Atos to take itself more fully into the cloud, the company embraced the change. Adopting Microsoft 365, Atos gave employees the flexibility of working from anywhere on the devices of their choice, simultaneously increasing security with Microsoft Endpoint Manager. The transition has resulted in millions of dollars in savings, 50 percent fewer IT help requests, and greater freedom for employees.
